

Syria Participates in Kuwait Travel World Expo 2011

Mar 30, 2011

Kuwait, (SANA)- Undersecretary of Kuwaiti Ministry of Trade and Industry, Abdulaziz Mashaan al-Khalidi, lauded the constantly growing level of the Syrian-Kuwaiti relations in various fields.

Al-Khalidi highlighted in a statement to SANA upon visiting the Syrian pavilion at Travel World Expo 2011 the rich tourist resources and the attracting atmosphere in Syria, which have encouraged a large number of Kuwaiti tourists to visit the country and enjoy its beautiful nature.

Kuwait Travel World Expo 2011, which opened on Tuesday, was organized by Kuwait International Fair Company with the participation of 35 local and foreign parties including the Syrian Tourism Ministry.

Farid Karima, Director of the Syrian pavilion at the exhibition, said Syria's participation comes in the framework of the tourist promotion plan carried out by the Ministry with the aim of attracting more and more Arab tourists to Syria.

A number of Syrian tourism offices are participating in the exhibition, most of them specialized in the traditional oriental handicrafts industries which enjoy great popularity among the Kuwaitis.

European Tourist Season in Syria Starts

Mar 23, 2011

Damascus, (SANA)-The European tourists have started to come to Syria in droves, packing the pavilions of the National Museum in Damascus, as scores of buses carrying European tourist groups queued in front of the entrance of the museum.

Anna Martin, from Britain, told SANA, "Syria abounds in astounding archeological sites such as the National Museum in Damascus, Krak des Chevaliers and Palmyra, not to mention the ravishing natural landscape that gives a special feature to tourism in Syria."

"Syria is a big museum of history and beautiful scenes" says Bel Foshin from Australia, signaling resolve to put Syria at the top of his tourist destinations.

Anklté Mendre, from Switzerland, described Syria as the cradle of civilizations, lavishing praise on Damascus splendor.

Chairman of the Federation of Syria's Chambers of Tourism Rami Martini said the European tourist season starts on March 20, expecting a successful tourist season all the year round.

According to the Ministry of Tourism's statistics, the number of European tourists hit 440, 311 thousand in 2010, compared to 390, 354 thousand in 2009, with a growth rate of 13%.
